

CROSBIE LORIMER - DIRECTOR

Crosbie Lorimer is a Director and Company Secretary of CLOUSTON Associates, having been a practising Landscape Architect since 1979. His professional career commenced in the public sector in Germany before joining CLOUSTON in the UK in 1982 and becoming an Associate of CLOUSTON in 1985. In 1989 Crosbie joined CLOUSTON Associates in Sydney and became a Director of the company in 1995.

With 30 years in practice he has experience in the delivery of complex, multi disciplinary projects across landscape design and strategic landscape planning. His expertise includes:

- Leading multi-disciplinary design and planning teams on projects for some of Australia's most significant public domain landscapes including Hyde Park, Centennial Parklands in Sydney, North Head and Commonwealth Park, ACT.
- Stakeholder consultation. Crosbie is the only NSW accredited facilitator for the internationally renowned 'Spaceshaper' program, licensed by CABE Space, UK.
- Walkability and Active Environments planning including development of the P2P Policy to Pavement Model jointly developed with consultants in SA and Victoria.
- Over 15 years experience in preparing strategic open space and recreation plans and management guidelines for Government in NSW, Victoria, Queensland and the Northern Territory.
- AILA's representative on numerous State Government committees, juries and panels evaluating open space and recreation, including 4 years on the NSW Metropolitan Greenspace Awards Panel.
- Fellow of the Australian Institute of Landscape Architects and convenor of the annual seminars for the NSW professional practice exam applicants since 1992.
